

Robert Rose is first mentioned in the SHTR in 1644, his son John (d. 1697) settled in North Sea c. 1656. Esther who is buried in the cemetery is Robert Rose's great-great granddaughter.

- OLD CEMETERY ON McKEOWN'S FARM -
NORTH SEA

Southampton Colony Chapter, D.A.R.
Southampton, L.I.

Mr. Thomas Jennings

Died Oct.3rd 1768. Age 68 yrs.

Esther Rose Daughter Mr. David and Mrs Phebe Rose

Died August 25th,1738. age 2 yrs.

William Hamner Son of Francis and Sarah Hamner

Died Dec. 11th,1738. age 3 yrs. 7 mos.

2014 Aerial photograph of 130 Scott Rd, North Sea with Old Rose Family Cemetery, circled in red, 2 headstones & 1 footstone.

December 2018

Facing west of all three stones. Photograph December 2018.

Facing east of all three stones. Photograph December 2018.

"In Memory of Mr. Thomas Jennings who died Oct. 3rd AD 1768 in the 68th year of his age."

(Photograph: December 2018)

Footstone: "Mr. Thomas Jennings, 1768"

(Photograph: 12/2018)

"Esther Rose, Daughter of Mr. David & Mrs. Phebe Rose died Aug. 25 1738. Aged 2 years"

(Photograph: 12/2018)

After excavation property, top with house, and below close up of headstones, looking south.

(Photographs, March 9, 2019)

